

Today we bring you the letters “E” and “F”

Ellie and Frank Fox wait five minutes for the Fun with Francis TV show to start. Frank fluffs up his fur and Ellie puts on her festive fleece frock for frolick and free-dance time.

Francis tells fairytales, fables and fantastic tales from Europe. Sometimes their Elephant friend Eve joins them but not every day. Eve is from France so she wears a fashionable fedora and says ‘fantastique!’ Eve also knows the name of each episode they have seen because elephants never forget.

Ellie prepares food during the break and Eve, Ellie and Frank eat and eat and eat until they finish all the eggs, french fries and frangipani scented fritatas. Eve finds eating eggs with a Fork to be quite a feat because the eggs keep falling off. She finally figures how to eat a few. Everyone loves fruit and fried figs for dessert even though they are a little expensive.

Sometimes right after Eating, Frank farts. It smells pretty funky but no one is fazed. When the Fumes are gone, Franks smiles and everyone forgives him. Back to watching Fun with Francis between four and five o'clock in the afternoon. On Friday there is an extra special episode about flags and each of them makes one. Eve's favourite episode is the one where they take feathers and make them into a fan. She was the first to finish and found the exercise 'formidable'! The foxes and elephant promise at the end to be Forever Friends.